

Five Points Capital Welcomes Jason Prather to Our Investment Team

JASON PRATHER
PRINCIPAL

Prior to joining Five Points Capital in 2021, Jason worked as a senior vice president with Woodforest National Bank providing senior debt to sponsor-backed middle-market businesses. Prior to this he worked on the financial sponsor teams at OneWest Bank (acquired by CIT) and MFC Capital Funding.

Outside of work, Jason enjoys spending time with his wife, Becci, and their four Children, Olivia, Joah, Drake and Asher. The Prather family can be found hanging out on the beach, exploring the National Parks across the West, or participating in various activities at their local church. When he is able to sneak away for rare personal time, he enjoys a good cup of coffee, running and cycling. He is an avid fan of watching Seinfeld and cheering for the Ohio State Buckeyes.

Jason received a bachelor's degree in Business from Miami University (OH).
