SuperStroke, headquartered in Wixom, MI, is a developer, marketer and outsourced manufacturer of golf equipment including oversized putter grips, round grips and weighted grips. The Company was founded in 1998 through the acquisition of the TigerShark and SuperStroke brands. Following these acquisitions, SuperStroke developed the proprietary low-density foam technology used in the Company's products. SuperStroke putting grips are used by 100+ professional golfers. The Company has built a reputation on the PGA Tour for having a superior product with demonstrated results.
