

Five Points

CAPITAL

AS BEEN ACQUIRED BY

APRIL
2015

Total Military Management manages and coordinates U.S. military and government household relocations nationally and internationally. Based in Jacksonville, Florida, the Company is a technology-enabled, asset-light provider of logistical, administrative, sales and marketing services to a network of transportation service providers. The Company helps carriers, agents, and other service providers manage the complexities associated with procuring and executing military moves and ensures the highest level of service is provided to military personnel and their families.

SUCCESSFUL
REALIZATION