Founded in 2008, MojoTech, LLC (“MojoTech”) is a premium onshore software company specializing in digital transformation and product development. By integrating engineering, strategy and design, MojoTech transforms enterprises and scales technology disruptors into leading digital businesses. Propelled from its headquarters in Providence, RI with an additional office in Boulder, CO, MojoTech partners with progressive organizations to deliver custom solutions requiring speed, scale, security and innovation.

Five Points Capital ("Five Points") provided growth capital and equity co-investment to support Stone-Goff Partners' investment in MojoTech. The investment will enable further growth for MojoTech, including the continued expansion of its talented delivery team and opportunistic M&A.
